

November 15th through November 22nd

Event Schedule:

- Poster Gallery & Chalk Trivia – All Week Long
All research posters were created by our students in the Geography department. Also, take a stroll around campus and find our chalk trivia.
Burchfiel Geography Building
- Meet and Greet - Tues, Nov 17th (2 to 5 PM)
Interested in culture, earth science, or GIS? Thought about being a Geography major?
Free Food & a chance to hangout with Geography undergraduates.
Mary Greer room in Hodges Library
- Stop by our Booth - Wed, Nov 18th (8 AM to 4 PM)
Between BGB and WLS
- National GIS Day - Wed, November 18th
- Guest Lecture - Thurs, Nov, 19th (3:30 to 5 PM)
Dr. Paul Robbins
“Birds, Coffee, and Workers in India: Are the Geographies of the 21st century Sustainable?”
Hodges Library Auditorium
- “Taste the World & Try Some Trivia”
Sunday, November 22nd (2 PM to 5 PM)
Taste different food from around the world. Also, compete in teams of 1 to 4 people for the chance to win awesome prizes!
International House Great Room

“Join us for Geography Awareness Week 2015 and learn what Geography REALLY is.”

Visit us at:
Geography.utk.edu
Facebook.com/UTKGeography
Facebook.com/UTKGeographyClub